

PARTIAL TICKET IS NAMED

Lawrence County Republicans to Oppose Thrice-Present Officeholders.

Special to the Gazette.

Imboden, Aug. 4.—The Lawrence county Republican convention was held at Powhatan Tuesday evening and regular routine business was transacted.

The following were nominated to make the race in opposition to the present Democratic nominees for the offices of representative, county and probate judge and tax assessor, respectively: Rev. W. R. Marshall of Portia, Hon. G. W. Wells of Imboden, Joseph Todd of Powhatan.

G. W. Wells was the Republican candidate two years ago and was defeated by the present incumbent, Judge J. D. Doyle.

STUTTGART EXPECTS CROWD