

Lawrence County Jail.

Black Rock, May 11.—R. L. Mosbey, a blacksmith, hung himself in the jail at Powhatan. Monday his wife died from two pistol shots fired by Mosbey Saturday. The cause of the shooting was jealousy. Mosbey was 50 years old and three children are left orphans. The ceiling in the cell being low, he tied his legs akimbo so that his feet could not touch the floor. He burned a rope from his bed with matches for a noose to do the fatal act.

Clipped By:

mick_haven

Tue, Oct 30, 2018