

superintendent, Frisco system, Memphis, Tenn.

Jack Hall and six other prisoners confined in the jail at Powhatan escaped Friday night by prying the door open with a crowbar. Four of them were captured Saturday about five miles below Powhatan and the others are still at large. Hall was suspected of being connected with the Bonnerville train robbery and was in jail on a charge of bootlegging. He was at one time in the hotel business at Imboden.

Clipped By:

mick_haven
Tue, Oct 30, 2018